

Amazing Grace – Native American Style Flute - A minor

A      ma      zing      Grace      how      sweet      the      sound

The first line of lyrics is "Amazing Grace how sweet the sound". Each word is represented by a flute fingering diagram. The diagrams are as follows: "A" (one finger down), "ma" (two fingers down), "zing" (two fingers down), "Grace" (one finger down), "how" (one finger down), "sweet" (one finger down), "the" (one finger down), and "sound" (one finger down).

That      saved      a      wretch      like      me

The second line of lyrics is "That saved a wretch like me". Each word is represented by a flute fingering diagram. The diagrams are as follows: "That" (one finger down), "saved" (two fingers down), "a" (two fingers down), "wretch" (one finger down), "like" (one finger down), and "me" (one finger down).

I      once      was      lost      but      now      am      found

The third line of lyrics is "I once was lost but now am found". Each word is represented by a flute fingering diagram. The diagrams are as follows: "I" (one finger down), "once" (two fingers down), "was" (two fingers down), "lost" (one finger down), "but" (two fingers down), "now" (one finger down), "am" (one finger down), and "found" (one finger down).

Was      blind      but      now      I      see

The fourth line of lyrics is "Was blind but now I see". Each word is represented by a flute fingering diagram. The diagrams are as follows: "Was" (one finger down), "blind" (two fingers down), "but" (two fingers down), "now" (one finger down), "I" (one finger down), and "see" (one finger down).